(SHRAM MANTRALAYA)

Dated, New Delhi, the 10th January, 79

Notification

G. S. R. — Whereas certain draft rules further to amend the Minimum Wages (Central) Rules, 1950, were published as required by sub-section (1) of section 30 of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948 (11 of 1948), at pages 1515 and 1516 of the Gazette of India, Part II, Section 3, sub-Section (i), dated the 24th June 1978 under the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour No. G. S. R. 844, dated the 7th June, 1978, inviting objections or suggestions from all persons likely to be affected thereby until the expiry of a period of four months from the date of publication of the notification in the Official Gazette;

And Whereas the said Gazette was made available to the public on or about the 24th June, 1978;

And Whereas the objections and suggestions received from the public on the said draft have been considered by the Central Government;

Now, Therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 30 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Minimum Wages (Central) Rules, 1950, namely:—

1. (1) These rules may be called the Minimum Wages (Central) Amendment Rules, 1979.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. In the Minimum Wages (Central), Rules, 1950, —

(i) in rule 23 sub-rule (5) shall be omitted and sub-rule (6) shall be re-numbered as sub-rule (5);

(ii) For sub-rule (1) of rule 25, the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“Extra Wages for overtime:— (1) When a worker works in an employment for more than nine hours on any day or for more than forty-eight hours in any week, he shall, in respect of such overtime work, be entitled to wages at double the ordinary rate of wages”.

Explanation—The expression “ordinary rate of wages” means the basic wage plus such allowances including the cash equivalent of the advantages accruing through the concessional sale to the person employed of foodgrains and other articles as the person employed is for the time being entitled to but does not include a bonus.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY

Department of Industrial Development

(Central Boilers Board)

New Delhi, the 21st December, 1978

Notification

G. S. R. — Whereas certain regulations further to amend the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950, were published as required by sub-section (1) of section 31 of the Indian Boilers Act, 1923 (5 of 1923) at page 308 of the Gazette of India, Part II — Section 3 Sub-Section (i), dated the 4th February, 1978 under the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Industry, Department of Industrial Development (Central Boilers Board) No. G.S.R. 193 dated the 18th January, 1978 inviting objections and suggestions from all persons likely to be affected thereby till the 4th May, 1978;

And Whereas the said Gazette was made available to the public on the 4th February, 1978;

And Whereas no objections or suggestions have been received;

Now, Therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 of the Indian Boilers Act, 1923 (5 of 1923), the Central Boilers Board hereby makes the following regulations further to amend the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950, namely:—

1. (1) These regulations may be called the Indian Boiler (Fourteenth Amendment) Regulations, 1978.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. In the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950 —

(i) in regulation 9 after clause (d) the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(e) semi-skilled steel may be used for plates in C and O — Mn Steel with an upper limit of the tensile strength not exceeding 56 kg/mm<sup>2</sup> and with thickness not exceeding 50mm under service temperature condition O-450°C”;

(ii) after regulation 13, the following regulation shall be inserted, namely:—

“13B. Testing and certification of semi-skilled steel for which all tests not carried out in a steel Plant. — Where a steel plant has not been able to carry out all the tests required under the regulations for testing the semi-skilled steel, the steel plant may supply such steel with a certificate in respect of such tests which have not been possible for them to conduct in order to get the steel certified under the regulations and in such a case it is open to the manufacturers to take such steel which has the potentialities of the semi-skilled steel to any of the independent testing laboratories, namely, National Metallurgical Laboratory, Jamshedpur, Central Mechanical Engineering Research Institute, Durgapur and National Test Houses, Alipore or Sewri for conducting the remaining tests provided that samples are drawn in the presence of the Inspecting Authority. Such remaining tests may also be conducted at the Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited, Tiruchirappalli in respect of plates intended for their use.

If a certificate of test is furnished by the steel makers in respect of tests carried out by them and another certificate is furnished in respect of remaining tests conducted by any one of the independent testing laboratories or the Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited, Tiruchirappally, the plates should be accepted by the Inspecting Authority or the Chief Inspector of Boilers of the States provided all the requirements of the regulations are covered by these certificates."

Notification

G. S. R. — The following draft of certain rules further to amend the Minimum Wages (Central) Rules, 1950, which the Central Government proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (2) of section 30 of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948 (11 of 1948) is hereby published as required by sub-section (1) of the said section for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on the expiry of the period of four months from the date of publication of this notification in the Official Gazette.

Any objection or suggestions which may be received from any person with regard to the said draft before the expiry of the period so specified will be considered by the Central Government.

DRAFT RULES

1. These rules may be called the Minimum Wages (Central) Amendment Rules, 1979.

2. In rule 21 of the Minimum Wages (Central) Rules, 1950, —

(1) in sub-rule (2), —

(a) for clause (xiii), the following clause shall be substituted, namely: —

"(xiii) Deductions made with the written authorisation of the employed person for contributions to the National Defence Fund or the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund or to any Defence Savings Scheme approved by the Central Government or to such other Fund as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf”;

(b) after clause (xiii), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(xiv) deductions for recovery of loans granted for house building or other purposes approved by the Central Government, and for the interest due in respect of such loans, subject to any rules made or approved by the Central Government regulating the extent to which such loans may be granted and the rate of interest payable thereon”;

(2) after sub-rule (2), the following sub-rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“(2A) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the total amount of deductions which may be made under sub-rule (2) in any wage period, from the wage of an employee shall not exceed—

(i) 75 percent of such wages in cases where such deductions are wholly or partly made for payments to co-operative societies under clause (x) of sub-rule (2); and

(ii) 50 percent of such wages in any other case: Provided that where the total amount of deductions which have to be made under sub-rule (2) in any wage period from the wages of any employee exceeds the limit specified in clause (i), or, as the case may be, clause (ii) of this sub-rule, the exceeds shall be carried forward and recovered from the wages for succeeding wage period in such number of instalments, not exceeding six, as may be necessary, to enable the deductions to be made in compliance with the said limit.

Illustration: The wages of an employee for the month of January (wage period) are 100 rupees and deductions (which include deductions on account of dues of a cooperative society) amount to 90 rupees. His maximum deduction from the wages for January will be 75 rupees. The excess amount of 15 rupees will be carried forward and recovered in not more than six instalments by limiting other deductions for those months so that the total deduction does not exceed 75 percent in any month (wage period)."
